Xi Jinping's new era of socialism with Chinese characteristics; "Three Entries"; ideological and political theory courses.

1. Introduction

Since the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, Xi Jinping's Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era put forward a series of groundbreaking new ideas, new thoughts, and new strategies, a scientific system with complete system, rigorous logic, and interconnectedness has been formed. Promoting Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era to be deeply rooted in the hearts of the people is a major political task proposed by the 19th National Congress of the Party. In order to deeply understand the spiritual essence and rich connotation of Xi Jinping's Thought of Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, it is necessary to give full play to the role of the main channel of ideological and political theory courses in universities.

The foundation of higher education institutions lies in the establishment of morality and cultivation of people. In order to cultivate new generations who are responsible for national rejuvenation, Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era must be run through the whole process of education, teaching and personnel training. Through the "Three Entries" of Xi Jinping's socialist thoughts with Chinese characteristics in the new era, we will continuously improve students' ideological level, political awareness, moral quality, and cultural literacy, and encourage students to consciously integrate their personal ideals and pursuits into the country and the cause of the nation, and be brave to be a endeavor and pioneer in the forefront of the times, and to provide strong talent support for the realization of the "two centenary" goals and the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation.

2. Xi Jinping's New Era of Socialism with Chinese Characteristics "Entering The Teaching Material" Is the Theoretical Basis

"Entering the teaching material" is to put the latest theoretical achievements of the Sinicization of Marxism into the teaching plan and courseware in a timely and active manner and to integrate its main ideas and basic strategies into the existing teaching material system to elaborate. As the content of Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era is extremely rich, the content of the "entering the teaching material" must highlight the historical status and guiding significance of Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era, highlight its scientific connotation and spiritual essence, to from the beginning to the end, focusing on the new ideas, new thesis and new requirements put forward by the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, and focusing on Xi Jinping's new era of socialism with Chinese characteristics, the teaching content of the corresponding chapters should be adjusted and enriched in time, so that the classroom teaching content and the party's theoretical innovation results can be synchronized and coordinated, so that it can be fully and accurately integrated into the teaching materials and can timely reflect the latest achievements of the party's theoretical innovation.

3. Xi Jinping's New Era of Socialism with Chinese Characteristics "Entering The Classroom" Is the Teaching Approach

(1) Teachers' understanding of the contents of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China is the prerequisite for "entering the classroom"

To promote the "entering the classroom" of Xi Jinping's socialist thought with Chinese characteristics in the new era, it is necessary to realize the transformation from a teaching material system to a teaching system. Only through the teacher's specific analysis and in-depth explanation of the relevant content of the textbook can students understand and master the new ideas and new contents. Teachers of ideological and political courses in colleges and universities should clearly explain the "changes" and "unchanged" in my country after the 19th National Congress, "change" is that the main contradiction of our country has become a contradiction between the people's growing need for a better life and unbalanced and inadequate development. "Unchanged" is the basic national conditions of our country is still in our country is and will be in the primary stage of socialism for a long time.

(2) Paying attention to the theoretical professionalism of party member students is an important part of "entering the classroom"

General Secretary Xi Jinping made an important speech at the National Conference on Ideological and Political Work in Colleges and Universities at the end of 2016. He put forward high requirements for further grasping the ideological and political theory courses, emphasizing the main channel of "good use of classroom teaching" to serve the growth and success of college students. Party members of college students are the leaders of contemporary college students in learning Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics. Their theoretical professionalism directly reflects the theoretical level of ideological and political theory teachers. Refer to the order similar to the "Pyramid", the ideological and political teachers are at the top, the college student party members are at the middle level, and the masses of college students are at the bottom. The college student party members are used to drive the masses of college students to participate more actively in the ideological and political courses teachers in the "entering the classroom" education and teaching.

4. Xi Jinping's New Era of Socialism with Chinese Characteristics "Entering The Mind" Is the Ultimate Goal

(1) The first is to require teachers of ideological and political theory courses to "entering their minds"

Marx once said, "As long as the theory is thorough, you can convince people. The so-called thoroughness is to grasp the root of things." [1] There is no doubt that we must better implement the "three enters" work and equip the minds of college students. "Entering teaching materials" is the foundation, "entering the classroom" is the way, and only "entering the mind" is the ultimate goal of education. However, the prerequisite for college students to "entering the mind" is that the teachers of the ideological and political theory course "enter the mind" first. Only after the ideological and political theory teachers "enter the mind", can they integrate their own solid theoretical foundation with new ideas, colliding with different sparks to grant students. Teachers of Ideological and political theory courses can learn the original report of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China and participate in the reports of the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China on and off campus, directly obtain and learn the latest theoretical results of the Sinicization of Marxism, research and discuss with relevant experts and professors, improve their theoretical level, and truly "entering the mind" before students.

(2) Second is to always establish problem awareness

Problems are an inevitable reflection of the development of the times. Since the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, the important characteristic of the Party Central Committee with Comrade Xi Jinping at its core has been the courage to face conflicts, resolve them, and be good at addressing and solving problems, and never avoiding contradictions and problems. Reform is to solve the prominent problems facing my country's economic and social development. Xi Jinping's Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era has systematically thought and answered practical problems faced by the adherence and development of socialism with Chinese characteristics, and he a strong sense of problems. The strong problem awareness of the party and the country has played an excellent role model for the "entering the mind" of Xi Jinping's new era of socialism with Chinese characteristics in our universities.

(3) Finally, it is internalized into ideas and externalized into practice

Contemporary college students are the main force in the construction of socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era, and the main force in realizing the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Xi Jinping's new era of Chinese characteristics is universally recognized and then internalized into the political ideals and belief system of college students, which is the fundamental requirement of "entering the mind". Through the teaching of ideological and political theory courses, students can truly accept the latest theoretical results of the Sinicization of Marxism, and truly understand the inherent meaning and practical value of the "Eight Clear" and "Fourteen Persistence" proposed by the 19th National Congress of the Communist Party of China. After internalizing the study and understanding of new ideas into their own methods of learning and doing things, they will truly become the future successor of the party and the country.

5. The Guiding Significance of the New Thinking "Three Entries" to the Ideological and Political Theory Courses in Colleges and Universities

(1) It is conducive to strengthening and improving the education and teaching of ideological and political theory courses in universities

The nature, purpose, and mission of the ideological and political theory courses in colleges and universities determine that they assume important responsibilities in advancing the "Three Entries" of Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era. As the main channel of teaching the Party's basic theory to college students, the ideological and political theory courses in colleges and universities undertake the strategic task of arming college students' minds with the latest theoretical achievements of sinicization of Marxism, and must always keep up with the pace of the Party's theoretical innovation. Ideological and political theory courses must fully reflect the latest achievements and latest developments in the theory and practice of socialism with Chinese characteristics, and help college students to deepen their understanding and recognition of Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era, and master its scientific connotation and spiritual essence, thereby enhancing college students' identity of the party's line policies.

(2) It is conducive to consolidating the status of the main channel for the latest theoretical achievements of Marxism in China

Our universities are universities under the leadership of the Party and socialist universities with Chinese characteristics. We must adhere to the guidance of Marxism. Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era is the inheritance and development of Marxism-Leninism, Mao Zedong Thought, Deng Xiaoping Theory, the important thinking of the "Three Represents", and the scientific outlook on development. It is the inheritance and development of Marxism-Leninism, Mao Zedong Thought, Deng Xiaoping Theory, the important thinking of the "Three Represents", and the scientific development concept, is the latest achievement of the Sinicization of Marxism, is the crystallization of the practical experience and collective wisdom of the party and the people, is an important part of the theoretical system of characteristic socialism, is an action guide for the entire party and the people in the struggle to realize the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation, and is the soul and main line of the spirit of the 19th National Congress of the Party. Ideological and political theory courses in colleges and universities are the main channel to promote the "Three Entries" of Xi Jinping's socialist thoughts with Chinese characteristics in the new era.

Through the "Three Entries" of Xi Jinping's thoughts on socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era, we will continuously improve students' ideological level, political awareness, and moral pursuits to integrate into the country and the nation's cause, and be brave to be pioneers and pioneers in the forefront of the times. Our party is in ten The Ninth National Congress of the Communist Party of China re-planned the "two centenary" goals, especially the "two-stage" division after the completion of a well-off society in an all-round way. The great responsibility of historical advancement fell on the young students who were about to enter society. The contemporary college students have further strengthened their confidence and determination to build a prosperous, democratic, civilized, harmonious and charming modern socialist country.
